

Wind in the Willows

Emilia Smith

A painting of a mole in a kitchen. The mole is wearing a blue vest and a yellow shirt, and is holding a large yellow cloth. He is standing in front of a wooden cabinet with a clock and various kitchen items on top. The background shows a bookshelf and a window with a curtain.

Mole was spring cleaning in his house and suddenly,
“Bother, O, blow, Hang spring cleaning!”
And ran out the house without waiting to put on his coat.
As he went outside he heard a faint call from above. So he climbed up and up muttering to himself “up we go! Up we go!”
Till at last POP! He was up.

He went to the river and saw Ratty.

“would you like to c0me over?”asked Ratty.

“Oh, it’s all very well to TALK!” Said MoleThe rat said nothing, but snoopied and unfastened a rope and hauled on it; then lightly stepped into a little Boat which Mole had not observed. It was it was painted blue on the outside and white within ,and was the size for two animals; and the Moles heart out to it at once, even though he did not yet fully understand its uses! The Rat sculled smartly across and made fast. Then he held up his forepaw as the Mole stepped gingerly down.

“lean on that!” He said “now then , step lively!” And the Mole in surprise and rapture found himself actually seated in the stern of a real Boat!

Open link below!

KS2: The Wind in the Willows

hello Ratty!

Hello Mole!

