

Some COOL brr-illiant facts about the Polar Desert.

Its like a desert but cold instead of hot.

It has ice instead of sand.

It covers more than 5.5 million square miles.

It can also be called 'The dry valleys' as it hasn't seen rain for 2 million years.

Coldest temperature is – 90 degrees

Warmest can be 30 degrees.

In warmer months, there can be nearly 24 hours daylight.

Due to there name you can expect to find Polar Bears, alongside, Killer whales, Penguins, Reindeers, Seals and even Kangaroo Rats.

There are only 2 regions of Polar Desert & that's Antarctica, the Arctic.

The rarest animal in the Polar desert is the arctic fox.